

Strategic Migration Law Solutions For Businesses and Individuals

Big Firm Experience | Small Business Values

Create Better Outcomes

From creating labour strategies that support the Australian economy to writing love stories for partner visas, we can work with you.

We go on the journey together.

Our difference

At Passage Migration Consulting, we have forged a new path in law, providing services with a personal approach in the complex field of migration.

Migration as a joyous partnership not a legal minefield.

Tailored solutions

to increase success and reduce processing times

Genuine partnership

to ensure your intended goals are met

Accessible team

to streamline and hasten the process

Fixed fee billing

so no nasty surprises ruin the result

Training services

so you can stay on top of your obligations

Annual + on-demand reporting

that keeps you up to date

For companies

We work in partnership with Australian businesses by understanding your business and being in your world. We build a strategy with you to supplement your local work force, by attracting offshore talent. Companies with a mix of talent embrace innovative technologies and skills, enjoy cultural diversity, and have a lower risk of incidents because, you can't learn experience.

Subclass 400

A short term, highly specialised work visa that allows work for up to six months for individuals to work on short-term projects.

Subclass 482

The temporary skills shortage visa that allows work for up to four years in specific occupations on the Skilled Occupation List. This visa requires an eligible sponsor.

Subclass 186

A permanent employer sponsored visa available to specific occupations after either a three-year period with the same employer or obtaining a positive skills assessment.

Subclass 485

A temporary work visa that allows students to gain work experience following completion of their study for up to two years.

For individuals

Whether for a visa application or appeal, our focus is on navigating migration law that results in applications that are easier to say yes to. You will have access to our legal knowledge and guidance to navigate the complex immigration process, documents and forms, with clear instructions at each step.

15 Minute Free Chat

Trying to find a lawyer is hard to do. We offer a 15-minute free chat so you can get to know us and we can understand your goals before we get started.

Passage Advice

After talking with a lawyer, we will provide tailored advice within our now, next, outcome framework with your goals in mind, including pathways, steps and recommended journey.

Work Visas

We've lodged 1000s of these visas in our time. We work with you and your employer to develop a visa strategy that suits your circumstances and the demands of the role.

Partner Visas

An opportunity to tell your love story. Guided by our experience - critical documents, dates and forms will be prepared to create positive outcomes.

Client Wins

"Passage Migration have been excellent in terms of explaining to us the rules of engagement when it comes to our own Department of Home Affairs. Without Passage, we would have been lost at sea trying to navigate all of the requirements, rules and steps with our own immigration department."

Cameron Wright (General Manager of Business Services, Mitchell Services)

"The complexity of migration regulation is a minefield. Rachael is technically astute, knows what to do and, more importantly, what not to do. For us, Rachael delivers. For anyone in the industry who employs from overseas and doesn't know where to start, just call Passage Migration Consulting, they make it happen."

Michael Walsh (Managing Director, Teneo Group)

"The process around migration and getting qualified people from other countries is intensive and detailed. Passage Migration Consulting is really committed to their clients so you get a very focused response, which is so important because migration is a critical component that is keeping our industry going."

Kim Wainwright (CEO, Xplore Resources)

"I have no doubt that Rachael's attention to detail, coupled with her experience with what might cause a delay made for an application that was "easy to say yes to" and that made all the difference."

Linda & David (Partner Visa)

"I highly recommend Passage Migration Consulting as your option to make your Australian migration dreams come true."

Oscar De Leonardo (Permanent Work Visa)

"Passage Migration Consulting has been instrumental in quickly lodging my visa application within a very short space of time."

Roy Cajetan (Temporary Work Visa)
